THE OLY STORY

San Francisco Bay Area designers Kate McIntyre and Brad Huntzinger have devoted twenty-eight years of design collaboration to evolving their idea of casual elegance.

Their Oly line's translation of showroom level design into an accessible collection has made them favorites of the design press. Noted design author and lecturer Diane Saeks has written of Kate and Brad "new products leap from their imaginations like sparks from a fire."

Whether turning those imaginations toward interiors, furniture, artwork, lighting or fashion, the end result is welcoming and relaxed with an original persona - classic yet fresh, luxurious, sophisticated and cool.
